

Young Children, Older Children, and Students

Drive Time Conversation Starters— All About Me

Best Use:

Improve conversation and connection with your children by asking open-ended questions. Choose 1 or 2, then start listening as your child talks. Be ready to ask follow-up questions as your child shares.

Value:

Take advantage of time spent in the car by getting to know your children. Turn off the music, take out the earbuds, and connect with each other.

Personal Feelings and Emotions

1. What makes you feel happiest?
2. Can you remember a time when you felt really brave?
3. What's something that makes you feel worried or nervous?
4. Who or what cheers you up when you're feeling down?
5. How does it feel when you try something new for the first time?

Family and Friends

1. Who in our family makes you laugh the most? Why?
2. If you could plan a family day out, what would we do?
3. Who's your best friend and what's your favorite thing to do together?
4. What's the nicest thing a friend has ever done for you?
5. How do you choose your friends?

School and Learning

1. What's the most interesting thing you learned at school today?
2. If you were a teacher, what subject would you teach and why?
3. What school project or homework assignment have you been most proud of?
4. Is there something you're curious about and want to learn more of?
5. Which book character would you want to meet in real life?

Hobbies and Pastimes

1. What's your favorite thing to do on a rainy day?
2. If you could invent a new game, what would it be like?
3. How do you like to relax after a long day?
4. What's a special talent or skill you have?
5. What's your favorite song to dance or sing to?

Future and Aspirations

1. What's something you want to learn to do?
2. If you could be an expert at anything, what would it be?
3. What do you dream of becoming when you grow up?

For more @home resources, visit: growfaithathome.org